Mrs. Lloyd Garrison.

Dear Sir A history, is in process of being written, of Windham County Conn. and the author has reached the "Canterbury Black School" - Miss. Can-dall's - and wants to enlighten the present generation concerning the strange deeds of their fathers. You had "a finger in the pie" and said some sharp things
of the matter and became involved in a libel suit - I believe - You proposed to print the names of Adams, Harris Judson. Sal Paine

and perhaps others
in heavy type, so that the print might harmonize with the blackness of their characters.

Can you lay your hand on those old articles? Have you
a file of the Liberator for those days? Could you copy out the essential points that would be valuable
in history and send them to me or to the body who writes the history, Miss. Ellen D.
Larned. Thompson Ct?
or procure some one to do so? or in some other way enable Miss. Larned to possess herself of all the facts on this subject that formed a judgment in the Liberator.

Please give this matter early a little thought & attention -
as the truth and completeness of history demands and obliges.

Yours truly,
Lucian Burleigh
